IMPROVEMENTS BY THE BELL. Company Plans to Spend Over $700,-000 For Betterments.

During the recent discussion of telephone matters, President George Y. Wallace of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company told the business men that his company intended to spend a large amount of money for approvements and extensions during the coming year. In response to The Herald's request for details of this ex-penditure, Mr. Wallace has prepared he following statement:

tion.

The house elected Representative Baggs. Union Republican, temporary chairman.

The two houses will meet again tomorrow morning when, if the factional differences can be adjusted sufficiently to bring about an organization, the judgment lien law, to adjust which the extraordinary session is called, will be passed on. The deadlock over organization was the result of differences between the Union (Addicks) Republicans and the regular Republicans over the division of the legislative offices. The Unions, who are in the majority, insist on having two-thirds of the offices, while the regulars demand that they be equally divided.

HARRIS FAVORS WATER.

Discussion.

ponents of the city water plan and his friends are anxious that he be put right in the matter. In the report of the Commercial club meeting Mr. Harris was classed as a follower of John E. Dooly. This, he says, it not true. He says he is in honor bound to support the water proposition for two reasons. First because the board of governors of the Commercial club endorsed the proposition and as an employe of the club it is his duty to carry out the wishes of the club. Second, as he is a part of the present city administration, it becomes his duty to call forth the most enthusiastic praise from the listeners. At the close of each
